HENRY LYNN, Prop.

AT THE ICE PLANT.

More Indictments. The territorial grand jury returned six new indictments yesterday against petty law breakers.

Big Crows to the Fair. The exodus to Chicago and the world's fair has begun again. This is caused by the low rates which went into effect yesterday. The round trip can now be made until the close of the fair for $17.00.

Mitchell-Bess. George F. Mitchell and Miss Nancy A. Hess came down from Wichita Sunday to buy a matrimonial knot. They purchased a good tie from Judge Lawrence and returned to Wichita in the evening.

A New Corporation. The Van Brunt and Wilkins manufacturing company of Wisconsin filed articles of incorporation in the secretary's office yesterday. The company has a capital of $85,000 and will manufacture agricultural implements. H. H. Howard has been appointed Oklahoma agent of the concern with headquarters at Oklahoma City.

Crippled Beggars. Beggars are in the city in large numbers, but the cripples predominate. As a general rule crippled mendicants are entitled to some consideration, but the maimed beggars now injure their cause by their check and snarl and thieving habits. Several cases of pocket picking are reported to have been perpetrated by cripples who roam from house to house begging meals.

Don't fail to see the beautiful new lamp just received at the Novelty store.

Reward Offered. Taken from the way car at Guthrie on October 14, 1893, at about the hour of 1:30 p. m.: One black cloth overcoat; also a small black seal skin gripsack, containing valuable papers to myself, but of no value to any one else. A liberal reward will be paid for the recovery of the property, especially of the gripsack and contents, and no questions will be asked. Said property may be left with the editor of the Daily Leader.

SET THE DOGS ON HIM. THE NERVE OF AN ITINERANT PICTURE FAKIR.

Endeavored to Work a Badger Game on a Lady and Her Husband. How He Works.

The ladies of the city will do well to keep a lookout for a picture fakir who has been gulling the people here during the past few days. His plan is to call on the ladies, secure photographs, that he daubs with some cheap colored paint, places them in a glass frame, the size of the photo, and charges $2.50 for the work.

A few days ago the fellow called at the home of a lady in West Guthrie and upon failing to secure an order, asked to be shown a picture. When he secured the picture he said it was just what he wanted for a sample and that he would return it in a day or two. The lady objected to his taking the picture, but he paid no attention to her, simply saying that he would soon bring it back and would not charge anything for the work. Saturday he came around with the picture and demanded $2.50.

The lady, of course, refused to pay the bill, so the fraud came down town and going to the woman's husband, stated that he had been sent by the lady of the house with the picture and a request to pay the bill.

As the husband was not of the "geese" variety, he took the picture and kicked the fakir from the office. Then the rascal returned to the lady and endeavored to make her pay over the money, threatening her with arrest if she did not comply. She ordered the wretch from her steps, whereupon he abused her in foul language.

He is a good subject to set the dogs on when he appears.

MAY AND DECEMBER.

Thomas Robinson, Aged 69, Weds a Bride of 16 Years.

Thomas K. Robinson, a prominent and esteemed farmer residing in the southwest part of the county, came to the city yesterday with a handsome, blushing young lady named Miss Maud Berry, residing in the same neighborhood. The couple smacked of matrimony, and Judge Lawrence was visited. The judge did his work in clean-cut style, much to the gratification of Uncle Robinson, who was nearly tickled to death. Robinson tips the scales of time at 69 years, while his fair bride is barely 16. Joy to them.

BEALL BROUGHT BACK.

He is Reindicted and Lodged in Jail in This City.

Fred M. Beall was re-indicted by the grand jury yesterday on the charge of killing F. R. McKennon, in front of Little's drug store last spring. A capias was at once issued and placed in the hands of Sheriff Painter, who went to Oklahoma City and brought back Beall. He was lodged in the county jail to await trial. The prisoner none the worse for his long confinement, save an anxious look in the eyes. He has received good treatment at the hands of the people of Oklahoma City.

OKLAHOMA MINERALS.

Outcroppings of Zinc, Lead and Oil in This Country.

About six miles from this city is a spring from which a fine quality of petroleum is discharged in considerable quantities. The owner of the land has gone to Pennsylvania to organize a company to develop this and other oil land.

In Greer county several old Spanish silver mines have been reopened, and near Willow Springs in the strip a shaft has been sunk and zinc found in paying quantities. Just east of Perry coal crops out on the surface and several fine veins have been opened. A company was organized last week to open lead mines in the Pawnee reservation, lead being found there where the Indians have been digging it up for years and making their own bullets. This company will attempt to secure land enough to build a mining town and put in smelters.

A GENTLE VAG.

E. W. Booth, a Handsome Young Fellow, Calaboose.

E. W. Booth, a young man of refined appearance and wearing a neat suit of clothes, was arrested at a negro dive yesterday and lodged in the calaboose. The fellow has a weakling for female shades, whom he has been living with for several weeks. Upon being searched not a red was found on Booth. He claims to be a gambler.

KAW SCRIP.

Secretary Love Will Go to Washington Relative to the Matter.

A Washington special of yesterday says:

Representative Russell of Connecticut introduced a bill authorizing the secretary of the interior to pay the holder of the Kaw, or Kansas Indian scrip balance due, amounting in all to $250,000. The secretary of the interior wired the secretary of Oklahoma, T. J. Lowe, to-day that he wanted him to come here as soon as possible.

Secretary Lowe was seen in regard to the matter and stated that he would probably go to Washington next week.

Did He Forget?

It is said that at a social held in this city not many moons ago a well-known young man went on record for his "near-sightedness." He left the social rather early and carried with him a brand new hat and an overcoat, which were evidently taken by mistake. His hat and coat, both the worse

Strange Coincidence.

The first man who was shot and killed in Guthrie after the settlement four years ago was named Stevens.

The first man shot and killed in Perry after its settlement was named Stevens, four years afterwards.

GOVERNOR RENFROW'S TRIP.

He Visits the Towns of the Strip and Reports All Prospering.

Governor Renfrow has returned from an extensive trip over the Cherokee strip and feels none the worse for his outing.

He visited all the new towns from Enid and Perry to Woodward, and reports all of them to be advancing and building up rapidly. At one or two places slight factional fights were on, but these will be settled in a few days.

The governor was amazed at the great progress being made, and thinks everything is possible in the new places. His few appointees are working like beavers and are giving great satisfaction to the people.

Railroad Interests.

Railroad matters are dragging again, as account of negligence on the part of Guthrie citizens. Three lines tap for admission to this section. A few welcome words would bring them right in. Work for Guthrie and railroads.

In a Bad Flight.

Oklahoma Times-Journal: Mr. W. H. Dewese was in the city yesterday from his farm near Yukon. He tells of a distressing condition existing in the family of his neighbor Christian Vorrath. On October 3rd Vorrath took a load of wheat to Yukon, which he sold. He put the team in a livery barn directing the driver to notify his family and inform them that he would not return. He has not been seen nor heard of since. His son was quite low with the fever when Vorrath left and on Thursday of this week he died. Now the mother is insane over the loss of her son and desertion of her husband. There are four small girls in the family. Vorrath was in good circumstances, and owed but little. No cause for his leaving can be ascertained.
